MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

Morning Meeting of 30 July 1968

The Director urged that there be no distribution or discussion outside the Agency of the paper on North Vietnamese intentions.

ADD/I provided a paper summarizing the military situation and location of troops in and around Czechoslovakia.

Godfrey noted that the Czech Minister of Interior has circulated to Czech publishers and editors the equivalent of the D List, which contains some thirty-five pages of official secrets on which publishing must be approved by higher authority.

The Director asked that George Allen stand by in the event that Senator Bayh desires to follow through on his earlier request for a briefing on Vietnam and the Pueblo at 1500 today.

The Director, noting that the Agency has now performed the function of assaying all available indicators in connection with North Vietnamese intentions regarding negotiations, observed that it is now up to State, Defense, and other policy aides to make whatever cases are to be made on the basis of the evidence. He asked Agency officials to avoid policy-making temptations.
